

Organisation for the Understanding of Cluster Headache

PROGRAMME OF EVENTS

Morning Session

09.30 – 10.30	Registration and Meet and Greet	Register and collect your conference pack and badges. Your opportunity to meet and talk informally to members and Trustees over a coffee
10.30 – 10.45	Welcome and Opening Remarks	Trustee Karen Charlton welcomes you to the meeting and chairman Mike Pollock gives a brief overview of the charity and its work over the last year.
10.45 – 11.45	Dr Alex Nesbit Research Fellow, Neurology University of Surrey Clinical Research Centre	Dr Nesbit's presentation will cover a study he is undertaking into sleeping patterns of CH and TAC sufferers and the impact the outcome of this study is likely to have on the treatment of CH.
11.45 – 12.45	Dr Juana Marin Research fellow Royal Free Hospital	Dr Marin is Professor Goadsby's Research Fellow, undertaking a study into a new and innovative treatment of cluster headache. .
12.45 – 2.00 pm	LUNCH	Time to eat, drink and circulate!

AFTERNOON SESSION

02.00 – 2.45	Dr Anish Bahra Consultant Neurologist, National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery	Dr Bahra is one of the consultants in the Headache Group at the National Hospital. She will give an overview of the signs and symptoms and treatment of cluster headache.
2.45 – 3.00pm	Coffee/Tea break
3.00 – 4.00	Professor Peter Goadsby Royal Free Hospital and UCSF, California, Patron OUCH (UK)	In today's presentation Professor Goadsby looks at the future and the treatments for CH and TACS that will come online in the next few years.
4.00 – 4.30	Q&A session And closing remarks.	Your chance to ask questions of the experts, before departing for home.

During the Meet and Greet session and during refreshment breaks a video of a cluster headache art exhibition – ARTe Cluster Project – collated by Claudio Geraci of AI.Ce. Cluster Europa, will be screened.